Counsel RB Capital Earns US$2.1 Million on Sale of Aleris Aluminum Assets

April 15, 2010 – Toronto, Ontario - Counsel Corporation (TSX:CXS) announced today that its Counsel RB Capital LLC (“Counsel RB”) subsidiary, as part of a consortium, has completed the sale of the former Aleris Aluminum manufacturing facility in Trois-Rivières, Quebec to an overseas purchaser for approximately $25 million. All amounts are stated in U.S. dollars unless otherwise noted.

Counsel RB and its partners purchased the Aleris Aluminum assets in November of 2009. Counsel RB’s interest in the transaction has yielded a gain of approximately $2.1 million after expenses.

“This was a great investment for us and is an indication of the types of deals we are seeing”, said Jonathan Reich, Co-CEO of Counsel RB. “We are extremely pleased with our return on investment, and feel that it reflects the hard work and skill sets of our entire team”, added Adam Reich, Counsel RB’s other Co-CEO.

“Aleris is an excellent example of the type of transaction that Counsel RB looks for. Counsel RB and its partners purchased Aleris’ equipment and premises (totaling more than two million square feet). On these types of deals we are able to combine the skills and great reputation of the Reich brothers, who have over 20 years of experience in the field of asset liquidation, with, when required, the real estate expertise of Counsel Corporation”, said Allan Silber, Chairman and CEO of Counsel Corporation and C2 Global Technologies Inc. (OTCBB:COBT). C2, 91%-owned by Counsel Corporation, owns Counsel RB in partnership with its Co-CEOs.

Mr. Silber added “We are very pleased with the progress that Counsel RB has made since it commenced operations in the second quarter of 2009. Since inception, we have completed 11 deals, each providing a solid return on investment. We are allocating more of our energy and resources to build this fast growing and important business. In the future, we plan to announce all Counsel RB transactions that have a bottom line impact of at least $500,000.”
